Carlisle Indian Football Team Has
No Trouble in Defeating
Local Team.

'VARSITY COULD NOT SCORE.

Utah Gridiron Warriors Failed to Hold
The Redskins for Downs—A Game Worth Seeing.

Well, the Carlisle Indian football team "has come and went," and Utah football fanatics have had the privilege of witnessing some really good, fast work on the gridiron. There was a "massacre" all right, but the extent thereof was not so far-reaching as was expected. The reason, perhaps, is that the savage Indians are, in spite of all that has been said to the contrary, possessed of the attribute of mercy, and they took no more scalps than they deemed necessary. That they could have made it a frightful slaughter is not doubted for a moment by those who saw the doings. They were too fast, too strong, and too well versed in the various cute tricks of the game, for the local team. The result may have been a surprise in some ways. A larger score was looked for by some, and others expected the east benchers to score against their opponents.

But it was interesting game in spite of the one-sidedness thereof. The interest was sided, too. All eyes were focused on the Indians' work, and it is safe to say that, if any, will forget it. The visitors won with ease, if any team in the country can boast of more perfect teamwork, we would like very much to see that aggregation in action. While the redskins played up a score of 22, they held the Carlisle team down to a cipher with the game moved. They could have made it more, and, with the field in better condition, could have run up a score of a hundred to nothing, for they comprise about the trickiest bunch of football artists ever seen in this neck of the woods.

The game, and shrewdly planned, of the field was against the Redskins, and the fact was noticeable when they attempted some of their rapid formations. Several runs, that would have been good for goals, were brought to a sudden termination because of this. The chief play used by the Indians, and one by the way that will not soon be forgotten, was their famous wing shift. It is a characteristic Indian trick, even if it was invented by a white man, Coach Warner. It consists of passing the ball to a player and the balance forming a guard around him, that is hard to break. When this trick is used, everybody goes at full speed, and woe unto the man or men who attempts to break it up. He who tries it gets a correct imitation of a cloudburst trying with a tumble bug. It is one play that seldom— if ever fails; at least it did not fail in Saturday's game. It meant big gains every time, but they had other tricks equally as effective.

Those who saw the work of the famous little football team of '36 thought the triple pass, executed by that team, wonderful. The Indians make that play look like a furniture van going up hill with a heavy load. They not only pass the ball two or three times, but they have a dozen or more times, and they do it so quickly that the keenest eyes do not detect the location of the ball until it is thrust across the goal line of the enemy. Then they were great on fake plays. The ball is passed. You are sure a certain redskin has it under his arm because he is running like mad and trying to avoid the enemy. Suddenly he is overtaken and perhaps downed. Then he smiles and shows an armful of emptiness while a brother have is cowering across the goal line with the much coveted oval. The greatest run made in Saturday's game was accomplished by Sheldon. After catching the kick, he ran 29 yards for a touchdown, and had to go clear through the Varsity team to do it. But the performance given him was simply great. The Carlisle players were knocked over like ninespins. And in spite of all these cute tricks, the Indians played a game clean from everything savoring of dirty work. Their playing was absolutely clean from beginning to end, and after the doings, Coach Holmes said he had never seen a team composed of more gentlemanly players.

There is not much to say as to the work done by the locals. They gained about four yards in the game. Not once did they hold the enemy for downs and only occasionally did they compel the Redskins to make their third trial for downs.

Bennion, Davis, Burmeister and Wade were the star players for the Varsity. Their individual work was simply superb. Were the team composed entirely of such men, the result might have been different. For the Redskins—well, there is no choice. They are all crackcracks and hard to beat.

The teams lined up as follows:

Carlisle. Position. Utah.
Flores. L. E. ... Davis.
Bowen. L. T. ... Strobel-Larson.
Dillon. L. G. ... Mason-Ames.
Exendine-White. R. G. ... Ray.
James-Exendine. R. T. ... Peterson.
Jude. R. E. ... Russell.
Johnson-Baker. Q. B. ... Wade.
Charles. ... Pitt.
Hendricks. L. H. B. ... Burmeister.
Sheldon. R. H. B. ... Moore-Forbes.
Williams-Charles. F. B. ... Bennion.

Referee and umpire. Coaches Holmes and Warner. Timekeeper. Drs. Hakebeck and Waite. Linesman. Dr. Plummer. Twenty-minute halves; touchdowns, Charles, Bowman (2), Hendricks; goals from free kicks, Johnson 1; missed 1; Jude 1; missed 1.

STRUCK A MISSED SHOT.

Fred Sickman and James Ashurst
Frightfully Mangled.

Wallace, Ida, Dec. 19.—Fred Sickman and James Ashurst, two machine men working on the 1,800-foot level of the Tiger-Poorman mine at Burke today, drilled into a "missed hole" and both were frightfully mangled. They are both at the Providence hospital here and will die.

The right side of Sickman's face was crushed in and both eyes were brown out and his entire body perforated with fine cracks.

Ashurst had both eyes blown out, his abdomen torn open and his left arm completely crushed.

Two shovelfuls of fine rock were removed from their bodies at the hospital. They only recently came to this district.

A LIVELY ENCOUNTER.

Gov. Wood and Judge Davis of Arkansas Come to Blows.

Hope, Ark., Dec. 20.—During the joint discussion yesterday by the three candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor, a personal encounter occurred between two of the candidates, Gov. Jefferson Davis and Asst. Justice Wood. Gov. Davis struck Judge Wood on the head, causing blood to flow freely. As Judge Wood attempted to retaliate he was seized and kept from reaching the governor. Later he engaged himself and struck the governor on the arm.

The two principals were arrested and placed under bond for their appearance in the mayor's court Jan. 15.

As Gov. Davis was closing his speech during the day he accused Judge Wood of having gone to New York to secure information against James K. Jones in the last campaign for United States senator. The governor said he himself but that Judge Wood had knifed him

PORTE WILL MAKE AMPLE REPARATION

For the Insults and Assault Put Upon Consul Davis at Alex-andretta.

THE GOVERNOR TO APOLOGIZE.

Attarian Will be Allowed to Depart Unhindered—Admiral Cotton Will Meet All Eventualities.

Constantinople, Dec. 20.—The porte has agreed to the demands of the United States government and has ordered the governor of Alexandretta to make ample apology to Consul Davis for the insults and assault to which he was subjected by the police of Alexandretta, while he was escorting to a departing steamer a naturalized American citizen named Attarian, who had been liberated from the prison through the intervention of Mr. Davis.

United States Minister Leishman arrived at a friendly understanding with Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish foreign minister, who agreed to the demands of Minister Leishman.

The porte notified the United States legation orally and in writing of the instructions telegraphed to the vail of Aleppo to order the governor of Alexandretta to call on Consul Davis immediately upon his arrival at Alexandretta and offer to him a complete apology.

The porte also has promised to punish the police officials who assaulted Consul Davis and will allow Attarian to depart unhindered. The United States cruiser San Francisco, with Rear Admiral Cotton, which left Beirut Friday, is expected to arrive there today, and when the Turkish government carries out the program it has formulated the Alexandretta incident may be considered closed.

It is felt that delay or complications are not likely, but Rear Admiral Cotton has received instructions to meet all eventualities.

Will be No Strike on U. P.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 20.—Union Pacific shompen in Omaha deny the report that a strike of blacksmiths and other machinists of the Union and Southern Pacific systems is contemplated on Jan. 1. They declare that the conditions and relations between the company and the men are harmonious at this time and that there is no cause for any labor difficulty. They assert that International President Slocum is speaking without authority when he says that a strike is contemplated. The men here say they have no grievances at this time.

Kaiser and "The Little Garrison."

Berlin, Dec. 20.—It is said that Emperor William has issued a secret order to the highest officers of the German army with regard to the recently published book of Lieut. Rilee, "The Little Garrison," and the conditions the writer claims to have existed at the "Forbach garrison."

The contents of the order have occasioned much excitement in the army and already have caused a number of officers to resign. While the text of the order has not been revealed, it is asserted that Emperor William expressed himself with unusual severity on the social immorality alleged to exist in army circles.

Extraordinary precautions have been taken to prevent the order becoming public and every copy of it made by the staff officers of the military cabinet was numbered consecutively and sent to the higher officers, who were directed to read it before the officers of their corps and then to return it to the military cabinet with the endorsement "read as directed and no copies."

In Memory of Bp. Leonard.

New York, Dec. 20.—Services in memory of the life and labors of the Right Rev. Abiel Leonard, bishop of St. Lawrence, and the Right Rev. James Ingile, bishop of Hankow, China, were held today in St. Thomas Episcopal church. Bishop Worthington of Nebraska conducted the services, assisted by Bishop Wall of Spokane. Addresses were delivered by John Wood, secretary of the board of missions of the Episcopal church; Rev. J. H. Spira, rector of St. Thomas' Rev. Dr. Port, president of St. John's college, Shanghai, and Rev. Dr. Lloyd, general secretary of missions.

Wants Democratic Convention.

Chicago, Dec. 20.—Chicago having secured the National Republican convention it was decided that the claims of this city for the Democratic National convention should also be laid before the national committee of the latter party when it meets in Washington in January.

Fight With Burglars.

New York, Dec. 20.—A gang of five burglars surprised while leaving the office of Isaac A. Sheppard & Co., in Pearl street, after having blown open the safe, had a running fight tonight with the police, during which one policeman and a nightwatchman were shot and slightly wounded. One of the burglars was knocked down and captured, but the others got away. The prisoner, who gave the name of Walter Davis, is believed to be a western crook. The men who escaped got away with a strong box taken from the safe. The value of the contents is not known.
